

Year 4/5/6 Learning (Music) @

Music choice board 4 - Cycle 3 Term 3 2021

Workshop: It is Maori Language week

Traditional Māori musical instruments, called taonga puoro, can be divided into two groups, named after the Maori gods Rangī and Papatuanuku.

Rhythmic instruments represent Papatuanuku.

Melodic instruments (instruments that can play a tune) represent Rangī.

Click on the link to learn more about some of the traditional Maori instruments.

Maori welcome song

Traditionally this song is sung to welcome visitors. Parts of the song is sung as a "repeat after me" song, also known as an echo song.

Tēnā koutou	Greetings to you all
E hoa mā	Dear friends
Kua tae mai nei	Who have arrived here
I tēnei wā	At this time
Nō reira rā	And so it is
E hoa mā	Our dear friends
Kia ora rā	That we extend our greetings
Koutou katoa	To you all
Kua rongo hoki ahau	I had heard of course
Kei te haere mai koutou	That you were coming
Nō reira rā	And so it is
E hoa mā	Our dear friends
Kia ora rā	That we extend our greetings
Koutou katoa	To you all

Your task:

- Click on this link: Tena koutou
- Listen carefully to the leading voice singing. Copy the voice as accurately as possible.
- Memorise the lyrics and sing the song without looking at the lyrics in the video.

Waiata

Remember this waiata that we sang in class?

Your task:

- Click on the link and join in with the song Epo I Tai Tai E ~ A Body Percussion Song
- When you have mastered the first part, move on to the more advanced rhythmic pattern.
- When you are confident you know the song and the rhythmic patterns, video yourself and save the video to share with the rest of the class at a later stage.
